PARTIES' STIPULATION REGARDING REMAINING DEPOSITIONS

All parties, by counsel, stipulate as follows:

1. By prior order of the Court, the depositions of Dr. Robert Wolf, Dr. Amy Alfred, and Miriam Hyde-Sullivan are to take place within thirty (30) days following the later of: (a) the Court's ruling on Lilly's Third Motion to Compel; or (b) Plaintiffs' production of all expert discovery and/or disclosure information required to be produced under the Court's ruling on Lilly's Third Motion to Compel. Order Granting Defendant Lilly's Motion To Extend Its Deadline for Depositions (May 19, 2011) (Record No. 121). That same order expressly contemplated the possibility that the parties may agree to a different deadlines for the above identified depositions. Id.

2. The Court granted Lilly's Third Motion to Compel on January 19, 2012 (Record No. 129), and Plaintiff produced the relevant required information on February 16, 2012. Accordingly, the foregoing depositions are currently due to be completed by March 19, 2012.

3. Lilly's Motions for Summary Judgment as to each Plaintiff's claims are fully briefed and remain pending before the Court (Record Nos. 94-96, 98, 100, 104-08, 111-16). The parties agree that their resources will be best utilized by scheduling the foregoing depositions, as needed, after and based on the Court's summary judgment rulings.

4. Accordingly, the parties agree to conduct the depositions of Dr. Robert Wolf, Dr. Amy Alfred, and Miriam Hyde-Sullivan within forty-five (45) days following the Court's ruling on all of Lilly's motions for summary judgment, or by such other deadline as the Court may establish.

5. Currently, there are no trial dates established in this matter. Accordingly, the extension agreed to above will not delay or otherwise impact trial.
